

JASON HEBERT

work experience

Office of Sustainability, Brown University

marketing and communications intern

june 2017 - present

- 1/ create and distribute marketing materials
- 2/ manage social media presence
- 3/ aid in special waste deployment
- 4/ volunteer for Green Move-In & Clean Break initiatives

Modern Culture and Media, Brown University

digital media lab assistant sept 2018 - present

- 1/ work with the professor (Teddy Pozo) to create lab handouts

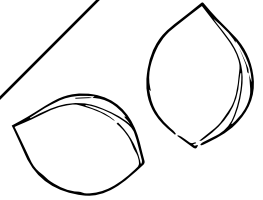

- 2/ aid students with the different topics and activities in lab

Office of Institutional Diversity & Equity, Dartmouth College

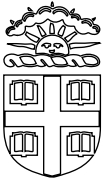

administrative assistance

may 2015 - sept 2016

- 1/ designed advertisements and promotion materials
- 2/ spread awareness of support systems for marginalized identities on campus
- 2/ coordinated WaterWorks, summer 2015
- 3/ organized personal research project

education

BROWN

Brown University, 2019

B.A. candidate in modern culture
and media,
digital media
production

self-identity

- 1/ multi-racial
 - a/ filipino
 - b/ abenaki
 - c/ french
- 2/ first-generation college student
- 3/ gender fluid, uses he/him/his
- 4/ environmentalist
- 5/ interest in human-computer interaction

volunteerships

contact

primary email

jason_hebert@brown.edu

secondary email

hebert.jason97@gmail.com

phone

(802) 291-0408

local address

66 Sheldon Street,
Providence, RI 02906

permanent address

2 Winter Street D5,
Claremont, NH 03743

skills

Eye2Eye, mentor

Providence

jan 2017 - may 2018

Over the academic year, Eye2Eye mentors meet with elementary school mentees diagnosed with ADHD, ADD, and other learning disorders in an after-school program to help them develop mechanisms and skills for coping with their disorders through introspective and creative projects