

JASON HEBERT

work experience

Office of Sustainability, Brown University marketing and communications intern june 2017 - present

- 1/ develop streamlined marketing plan
- 2/ create and distribute marketing materials
- 3/ manage office's social media presence
- 4/ collaborate with students to create waste sorting application

Modern Culture and Media, Brown University digital media lab assistant sept 2018 - jan 2019

- 1/ worked with the professor (Teddy Pozo) to create lab handouts
- 2/ aided students with the different topics and activities in lab

Office of Institutional Diversity & Equity, Dartmouth College administrative assistance may 2015 - sept 2016

- 1/ designed advertisements and promotion materials
- 2/ spread awareness of support systems for marginalized identities on campus
- 2/ coordinated WaterWorks, summer 2015
- 3/ organized personal research project

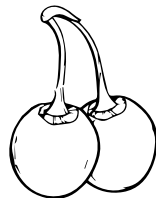

education

Brown University, 2019

B.A. in Modern Culture and Media,
Digital Media Production

Rhode Island
School of Design, 2022

M.I.D. Candidate in Industrial Design

contact primary email

jason_hebert@brown.edu

secondary email

hebert.jason97@gmail.com

phone

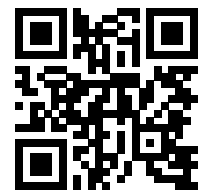

(802) 291-0408

local address

66 Sheldon Street,
Providence, RI 02906

permanent address

2 Winter Street D5, Claremont, NH 03743

self-identity

- 1/ multi-racial
 - a/ filipino
 - b/ abenaki
 - c/ french
- 2/ first-generation college student
- 3/ gender fluid, uses he/him/his
- 4/ environmentalist
- 5/ interest in human-computer interaction

<https://jasonhebert97.github.io/>

skills

volunteerships

Eye2Eye, mentor

Providence
jan 2017 - may 2018

Over the academic year, Eye2Eye mentors meet with elementary school mentees diagnosed with ADHD, ADD, and other learning disorders in an after-school program to help them develop mechanisms and skills for coping with their disorders through introspective and creative projects